

Enriching children's lives through practical learning and outdoor activities

Preventing radicalisation policy

Aims of the policy

The FLOURISH AT THE FARM Preventing Radicalisation Policy is part of a suite of policies on safeguarding demonstrating our commitment to keeping children and young people safe.

This policy addresses the statutory duty under section 26 of the Counter-Terrorism and Security Act 2015. That schools should have; "due regard to the need to prevent people from being drawn into terrorism." This duty is known as the Prevent duty.

It is FLOURISH AT THE FARM's role, through its safeguarding duty, to prevent students from the risk of radicalisation.

Roles and responsibilities

Directors will:

- have overall responsibility for the Prevention of radicalisation at FLOURISH AT THE FARM
- ensure that all staff undergo Prevent training

All staff will be aided in ensuring they:

- understand the Prevent duty
- undergo Prevent training
- act as FLOURISH AT THE FARM's Prevent lead
- understand the channel programme and know when it is appropriate to refer students to it
- be able to identify students that may be vulnerable to extremism
- to protect students from the risk of radicalisation

staff will be aided to:

- understand the Prevent duty
- undergo Prevent training
- be able to identify students that may be vulnerable to extremism
- protect students from the risk of radicalisation
- understand the Channel programme
- embed British Values, equality, diversity and inclusion, wellbeing and community cohesion through their subject

The Directors will complete Prevent training at FLOURISH AT THE FARM. Through FLOURISH AT THE FARM's programme and as part of our British Values provision, students will be guided on online safety and how to keep themselves safe online, both at FLOURISH AT THE FARM and in their outside lives.

British Values, equality, diversity and inclusion, wellbeing and community cohesion will be promoted through all the subjects taught at FLOURISH AT THE FARM.

IT systems Through online filtering and monitoring systems, FLOURISH AT THE FARM will ensure that when students access the internet they are safe from terrorist and extremist material.

Refer to safety policy for the above.
